

For this first scavenger hunt, you will need to mark down three locations. One of them is where you will find lots of animals, the second location is where you can learn more about St.Louis city, and the final location is a place where candy is made. Mark all three locations just like how tutorial 1 showed you and show your answers to your instructor. Happy Hunting.